PRESS RELEASE

Golden Haven posts record growth in 2016; opens first memorial chapel and columbarium

Golden Haven Memorial Park, Inc., one of the country's leading memorial park developers, posted a record consolidated net income growth of 19% for the full year 2016. Golden Haven's total net profits reached P180.22 million from P 151.12 million posted in the previous year. Total revenues posted also a record P 814.59 million from last year's P 692.80 million, or 18% increase.

"Fueled by a successful Initial Public Offering (IPO) in June 2016, the Company delivered its highest numbers in terms of its memorial lot and columbarium vault sales which resulted into record breaking revenues and net income", said Golden Haven President Jerry M. Navarrete. "With a significant part of the IPO proceeds going into investments for expansion projects and the completion of our Memorial Chapels and Crematorium, that we are planning to fully utilize in the coming year, we are confident with the company's prospect for 2017", he added.

Golden Haven increased its assets to P 2.88 billion in 2016, from P 1.79 billion in 2015, representing an unprecedented 61% growth. As reported by the company, a significant part of this growth was the parallel increase in its Property and equipment assets, recorded at P 141.97 million, and its Investment properties, recorded at P 267.31 million. As disclosed in the company's report, these numbers represent the equipment purchased for the Golden Haven Chapels and Crematorium, as well as the new properties acquired by the company, including land in Nueva Vizcaya and Pampanga.

"With the opening of the Memorial Chapels and Crematorium in the first quarter of 2017, coupled with the upcoming launches of new parks in Bambang and San Fernando in the second quarter, we are expecting even better results for 2017 due to the recognition of returns from the investments made with the IPO proceeds", said Golden Haven COO Maribeth C. Tolentino. "Beyond improved sales efforts and strategies, the expansion plans put into action this year gives the company an avenue for a solid pipeline for the coming years, along with new opportunities in previously untapped, high potential markets", he stated.

As of the end of the 2016 fiscal year, Golden Haven has eight memorial park projects, covering a total area of more than 66 hectares spread across various parts of the Philippines, including Las Piñas, Bulacan, Cebu, Cagayan de Oro, Iloilo, Nueva Vizcaya, Pampanga, and Zamboanga. As disclosed in the company's annual report, HVN has also entered into agreements to acquire properties in various new areas in the country.

The Company was listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange in 2016 under the stock symbol "HVN", and is the first death care company in the Exchange.
